SUNDAY, NOV. 11TH
VETERANS DAY

A NIGHT AT THE NATIONAL WWII MUSEUM & DINNER

IPAA AND LOGA WELCOME YOU TO NEW ORLEANS, LA!

IPAA guests will enjoy an evening at the world renowned National World War II Museum. Buffet dinner, entertainment reminiscent of the era, and a docent-led tour by IPAA former chairman, Paul Hilliard, a WWII veteran and the National WWII Museum Board Chairman. He will take you through the Campaigns of Courage pavilion and will be available to you throughout the entire evening as you explore the museum at your leisure. The pavilion embodies two floors of history including:

ROAD TO BERLIN—1ST FLOOR

The European – Mediterranean Theater spanned several years and engaged hundreds of thousands of people in the air, at sea, underwater, on the beaches, and in the mountains and desert. Road to Berlin will present a comprehensive narrative of the fascinating stories and events in Europe, helping visitors to understand and appreciate what preceded

D-Day in June 1944—the challenges, strategies and operations that secured the path to Normandy, as well as the bloody battles that followed.

ROAD TO TOKYO—2ND FLOOR

For America, World War II began in the Pacific. Although the nation's attention had long been drawn to events in Europe, it was the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor that officially brought America into World War II. The Asia-Pacific Campaign builds on that galvanizing event, following the path that leads from Pearl Harbor to Tokyo Bay by way of New Guinea and Southeast Asia, the Himalayas, Burma, and the islands of the Pacific. Road to Tokyo explores the evolving strategy for fighting in Asia and the Pacific, and the cultural differences and tremendous range of extreme conditions that confronted our soldiers. Galleries will include: The New Naval Warfare, Guadalcanal, Pacific Campaign Challenges, Island Hopping, China-Burma-India, Philippines, Death at Japan's Doorstep, and Downfall.

Industry Infrastructure Issues

Increased oil and gas production presents ongoing challenges for transportation infrastructure because much of this increase is in areas with limited transportation, especially the Permian Basin. With production growth being directly tied to takeaway capacity, relief not expected until 2019 when new pipelines are expected to be built, and steel tariffs and quotas – what does all of this mean for the oil and gas industry now and in the near future?

MODERATOR

Lee O. Fuller

Executive Vice President, IPAA

SPEAKERS

Andy Black

CEO, Association of Oil Pipe Lines (AOPL)

AOPL promotes the safe, reliable, and efficient transportation of energy liquids by pipelines and educates the public about the vital role oil pipelines serve in the daily lives of Americans. Black leads outreach to Congress, the U.S. Department of Transportation, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC), other government agencies, trade associations, and key stakeholder groups.

Jeff Welch

President, NAmerico Energy Holdings ("NEH") LLC

NEH is a joint venture between Cresta Energy and NAmerico Energy. NEH is actively involved in the development of natural gas, natural gas liquids and refined products pipelines, terminals and storage facilities in both the United States and Mexico to facilitate the seamless flow of U.S. hydrocarbons to domestic and international destinations.
