Paul Tossetti

Executive Director

IHS Markit, Crude Oil Markets and Downstream

Area of specialty/expertise: oil markets, global oil supply trends, OPEC production capabilities, crude oil prices and differentials, global crude oil flows

Joined PFC Energy, now part of IHS Markit in 2006

Previous employers and job roles: Paul is a past Senior Consultant (2001-2005) in Saudi Aramco's Corporate Planning Department where he was a key member of a small group responsible for advising Aramco's Executive Management on the monthly formula pricing of Arabian crude grades to its refining customers around the world. Prior to this experience, Paul had over 25 years of experience with Atlantic Richfield (ARCO) in a variety of roles including Director, International Natural Gas Marketing, and Director of International Energy Analysis. In both roles, Paul's focus was not only the broad area of energy supply, demand and price, but also taking the analysis a step further to identify and assess potential energy investments.
