Wil VanLoh
Founder and CEO
Quantum Energy Partners

Wil is the Founder and CEO of Quantum Energy Partners, which he founded in 1998. Quantum manages a family of energy-focused private equity funds, with more than $17 billion of capital under management. Wil also serves as Chairman of the firm’s Executive and Investment Committees. In these capacities, he leads the firm’s investment strategy and capital allocation process, working closely with the investment team to ensure its successful implementation and execution. Prior to co-founding Quantum, Wil founded Windrock Capital, Ltd., an energy investment banking firm specializing in raising private equity for and providing merger, acquisition and divestiture advice to private energy companies. Prior to Windrock, he worked in the energy investment banking groups of Kidder, Peabody & Co. and NationsBank. Wil sits on the boards and is involved in numerous philanthropic organizations, including the Board of Visitors of MD Anderson Cancer Center, the Board of Directors of Family Legacy and Chairman of the Investment Committee for the Kingdom Giving Fund. He holds a B.B.A. in Finance from Texas Christian University.
K. Scott Roy is Senior Vice President at Range Resources Corporation. He oversees government relations, environmental compliance and leads Range’s sustainability efforts. He provides executive leadership for a staff that works to ensure the company’s operations are environmentally safe and meeting or exceeding government regulations.

Mr. Roy leads a team of diverse industry veterans with decades of safety and regulatory compliance expertise with a goal to continuously improve the company’s environmental programs and efforts. He and his team are focused on achieving sustainable operational growth in tandem with best-in-class practices for environmental stewardship, while ensuring employee and public safety.

Mr. Roy and his team work alongside elected officials, state and federal regulatory agencies, and other organizations throughout the United States to build relationships among industry leaders, legislators, and conservation and environmental groups.

Aside from working to improve the oil and gas industry’s outreach and rapport with various stakeholders, Mr. Roy serves in various board capacities, including the Allegheny Conference on Community Development’s Pennsylvania Economy League of Greater Pittsburgh, Magee Women’s Research Institute & Foundation and the Senator John Heinz History Center.

Prior to joining Range Resources in 2009, Mr. Roy served nearly 20 years in numerous executive capacities for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania throughout the administrations of both Governors Tom Ridge and Edward G. Rendell.

Mr. Roy earned his bachelor’s degree from Allegheny College and his juris doctorate from the Dickinson School of Law at Penn State University.
Lloyd Visser
Global Head of Sustainable Development
ConocoPhillips

Lloyd Visser is the global head, Sustainable Development for ConocoPhillips within the Strategy, Exploration & Technology organization. The Sustainable Development group has global responsibility for: corporate positions on sustainable development (SD); implementation of SD risk management processes; development of strategies to address SD-related business risk; and, internal and external stakeholder engagement on priority SD matters.

Lloyd has 30 years industry experience, including regulatory approvals for major projects, public policy development, and external engagement with a range of key stakeholders including communities, indigenous people, government, investors and the financial sector. Lloyd leads the development and implementation of SD management system approaches and strategies to pro-actively address related business risk trends.

Lloyd has been the global head of SD since June 2017. His preceeding role was the vice president for Sustainable Development and External/Government Affairs in ConocoPhillips Canada from 2015 to 2017 and vice president of Sustainable Development from 2009 to 2015. He was general manager for Environment and Stakeholder Engagement from 2003 to 2009, after securing the principle regulatory approvals for Surmont.

Lloyd earned a Bachelor of Science in 1986 and a Master of Science in 1990 from the University of Calgary.
Tony R. Weber
Managing Partner
NGP Energy Capital

Mr. Weber joined NGP in 2004 and serves as Managing Partner and Chairman of the firm’s Executive Committee. He chairs the Investment Process Committee where he oversees the firm’s ongoing investment and execution efforts, as well as, plays an active role in the full range of NGP’s investment and monitoring process. Mr. Weber has deep industry relationships and experiences that are vital resources for the firm. In addition to managing the day-to-day activities of the firm, Mr. Weber also plays a key role in sourcing and managing NGP’s relationship with its investors.

Prior to NGP, Mr. Weber was the Chief Financial Officer for Merit Energy Company where he raised equity commitments from investors and oversaw all of Merit’s financial, accounting, and investment functions.

Before Merit, NGP enjoyed a strong relationship with Mr. Weber from his position as Senior Vice President and Head of Union Bank of California’s Energy Division in Dallas. During his 14 years as a commercial banker, he was involved in the financing of more than $14 billion in energy transactions, including senior debt facilities, mezzanine debt structures, project financing and direct equity investments.

Mr. Weber received a B.B.A. in Finance in 1984 from Texas A&M University, where he is a member of the Dean’s Council, a founding member of the Mays Business Fellows Program, and was recognized as an outstanding alumnus in 2013.
Cody C. Campbell
Co-Founder and Co-CEO
Double Eagle Energy Holdings

Mr. Campbell is Co-Chief Executive Officer and co-founder of Double Eagle Energy Holdings. Headquartered in Fort Worth, Texas, Double Eagle is an upstream E&P company, and has been one of the most-active participants in the Permian Basin over the last 10 years, assembling hundreds of thousands of acres, and completing billions of dollars in transactions. Currently Double Eagle is one of the most-active drillers and fastest-growing oil producers in the Permian, continuously running 6 horizontal drilling rigs on its acreage position in the Midland Basin.

Mr. Campbell began his business career while a student at Texas Tech University in Lubbock, Texas, where he and John Sellers co-founded a successful commercial real estate development firm. Mr. Campbell graduated with honors from Texas Tech in 2003, with a Bachelor of Business Administration degrees in both finance and economics and earned a Master of Science degree in finance from Texas Tech in 2004.

Mr. Campbell was a four-year football letterman at Texas Tech and received multiple All Big 12 and Academic All Big 12 honors. After his college career, he spent just under two years on the roster of the Indianapolis Colts as an offensive guard. Mr. Campbell is a member of YPO (Young Presidents’ Organization), serves as a Board Member of the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board, and was named the 2019 Distinguished Alumnus for the Texas Tech Rawls College of Business. He lives in Fort Worth with his wife and four children.
Jonathan W. Cox
Global Co-Head of Energy Investment Banking
J.P. Morgan

Jonathan Cox is J.P. Morgan’s Global Co-Head of Energy Investment Banking and serves on its Global Energy Transition Team. Previously, Mr. Cox held senior positions over more than two decades at Morgan Stanley, Deutsche Bank, and Goldman Sachs, including most recently as Head of Energy Mergers & Acquisitions. Mr. Cox’s expertise spans the upstream, integrated oils, midstream, oilfield services, downstream and renewables sectors. He has led the advisory efforts on many of the industry’s largest and most transformational transactions. Prior to becoming focused on the energy sector, Mr. Cox was a senior M&A practitioner across industries.

Mr. Cox has a B.A. in Economics from Trinity College in Connecticut and an M.B.A. with highest distinction from Columbia University. He lives in Houston with his wife and has three children. Mr. Cox serves on the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors at the Alley Theatre. His other civic involvement has been extensive, primarily in education related causes. In his spare time he enjoys back-country skiing and all things Rocky Mountains.
Brent Smolik
Former President and COO
Noble Energy

Brent Smolik is the former president and chief operating officer of Noble Energy, Inc where he served from 2017 to 2019. With more than 35 years of technical, operating and leadership experience in the oil and natural gas industry. Prior to his role with Noble Energy, Mr. Smolik served as president, chief executive officer and chairman of the board of EP Energy Corporation and EP Energy LLC from 2012 to 2017. He previously served as executive vice president of El Paso Corporation and president of the El Paso Exploration & Production Company.

From 2004 to 2006, Mr. Smolik served as president of ConocoPhillips Canada and Burlington Resources Canada. From 1990 to 2004, he served in a variety of engineering and asset management positions of increasing responsibility for Burlington Resources Inc., including chief engineer. He began his career with ARCO Oil and Gas in 1984.

Mr. Smolik has previously served on the American Petroleum Institute Upstream Committee and the board of the American Exploration and Production Council. He has also served on the boards of Cameron International Corporation, Center for Hearing and Speech Foundation, Houston Zoo and America’s Natural Gas Alliance and the Independent Petroleum Association of America.

Mr. Smolik holds a bachelor’s degree in Petroleum Engineering from Texas A&M University.
RESTRICTURING PANEL

Mike Wichterich
President
Three Rivers Operating Co. LLC

Mr. Wichterich is the founder and Chief Executive Officer of Three Rivers Operating Company III LLC. He founded the initial Permian-focused Three Rivers Operating Company I LLC in 2010 and later Three Rivers Operating Company II LLC, and Three Rivers Operating Company III LLC. Since inception, the Three Rivers entities have made over 18 acquisitions, aggregating over 380,000 net acres, and operated over 1,000 wells. Over the course of seven separate sales, through the divestiture of a majority of the assets for each of the entities, Mr. Wichterich and the Three Rivers team have generated total sales proceeds of more than $2.8 billion and profits in excess of $1.4 billion. Currently, Mr. Wichterich has established Three Rivers Operating Company IV LLC.

Mr. Wichterich is a graduate of the University of Texas.
STATE OF THE DEBT MARKET

Bryan Walker
Managing Director
Sixth Street Energy

Bryan Walker is a Managing Director of Sixth Street, which is a global investment firm with $47BN of assets under management and more than 275 team members across nine offices. Mr. Walker co-founded Sixth Street's Energy business, which provides bespoke, partnership-oriented capital solutions to private and public companies across the Energy sector. Prior to joining Sixth Street in 2012, Mr. Walker was with Lightyear Capital, where he was responsible for evaluating and executing private equity investments across a broad spectrum of companies in the financial services sector. Mr. Walker began his career in the investment banking division of Bank of America Merrill Lynch where he focused on financial institutions. Mr. Walker received his BS in Economics with a concentration in Finance from The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.